1. Pacific Northwest Mustang Club Car Show, Columbia Crest Winery
Sunday, October 6th.

Old Business:

1. Fair report: Mike Charlo reported that the Fair appreciated our help.
  - Maggie added that although we don't accept tips for driving shuttle carts, there were people who deposited money in the front cups just as they got out. SO, with that being said, $13 was given to our treasurer.
  - Also appreciation goes out to all who volunteered to drive shuttle carts, Scan & Stamp hands for Concert & Demo Derby, and those who attended the Car Shows at the fair and their responses to the survey.
2. Glenda Hargrave let us know that Fred Hutch sent a Thank You for the $1200 donation for Cancer Research. (Yes, only for research and not for advertising)

New Business:

1. We have more opportunities to earn money for charities. Each day the club will earn $200 for our efforts. If you are interested in participating in the following events please let Maggie know.
  - a. Parking Cars for the Indian Relay Races at the Fair Grounds September 21,22,23. (This will net us $200 a day each day is approximately 3-4 hours each day. You can volunteer what amount of time you can. Ie. 1,2,3,4 hours) More people makes it more fun! ☺ Dust off & charge your walkie-talkies. Note....After parking is completed the people who were parking can be escorted into the event, if you have an interest.

- i. Friday, September 20 We arrive at 5 p.m. to begin parking.
(Show starts at 6:30 p.m.) ; Stuart, Jeanette, Mike C, Tom D. Maggie

- b. Sunday, November 10th (we have talked about this one before) Baker Boyer is having a Birthday Celebration. 3-6 p.m. at the Fair Grounds. We have been asked to park cars that day. They are expecting 1500-2000 people to attend and will need people to help park them. They originally offered us $250 to park, then when they found out we give to local charities, they upped the amount to $500.
- i. Arrive at 2 p.m. event ends with Fireworks at 6 p.m.
    1. Volunteers at this time include: Lynette/Steve Ciarlo, Tyler (sorry you
